Gerwick named Asia Scholar

Fifteen students at the University of Kansas who have been selected as 2009 Kansas Asia Scholars are preparing to study abroad May 22-June 13 in China. Among those students is Megan Nicole Gerwick, a senior in English and secondary-level education and daughter of Frank and Deborah Gerwick of Derby. Gerwick will spend two weeks studying Chinese language, culture and history at Huazhong Normal University in Wuhan, China. A third week will then be spent traveling and viewing sites such as the Great Wall of China and the Forbidden City in Beijing.
